

The Finance Sector

*GVA is an economic measure of the value of goods and services produced in an area

Finance is not just accounting
- there are many other types of roles.

Employers value soft skills as much as hard skills.

Maths & English aren't the only skills employers are looking for. Soft skills like motivation, appetite to learn and teamwork are listed as a top skill.

Collaboration

- Teamwork
- Relationship building

Communication

- Strong written communication skills
- Strong verbal communication skills

Core Skills

- Analytical thinking
- Problem solving
- Attention to detail
- Leadership
- Self-motivation
- Appetite to learn

Organisation

- Organisational skills
- Ability to work under pressure
- Time management

AGB - Meet Ed

Undergraduate Degree
Hotel Management

Permanent Role
Client Services
Department

Work Experience
DNB Bank in London

Another Degree
Corporate Banking
alongside fulltime role

Client Relationship Manager

1 Year Working in Oslo
5 Years Working in Shanghai

Moved to Guernsey

Role at Reputable International Bank

GIFA - Meet Katy

Undergraduate Degree

BSc Oceanography
with Marine Biology

Volunteer Conservationist

Whale sharks & turtles

Recruitment Consultant

Banking

Hedge Fund & Investor Relations Specialist

London

Fund Admin

Executive Director

Professional Qualifications

- UKSIP Level 3 Certificate in Investment Management
- Institute of Directors
- Certificate & Diploma in Company Direction
- Chartered Director Status

GIFA Chair

IoD Committee Member

Independent Non-executive Director (NED)

Employers value soft skills as much as hard skills.

Maths & English aren't the only skills employers are looking for. Soft skills like motivation, appetite to learn and teamwork are listed as a top skill.

Collaboration

- Teamwork
- Relationship building

Communication

- Strong written communication skills
- Strong verbal communication skills

Core Skills

- Analytical thinking
- Problem solving
- Attention to detail
- Leadership
- Self-motivation
- Appetite to learn

Organisation

- Organisational skills
- Ability to work under pressure
- Time management